

4 Bedroom House for Sale in Paphos District

Set within the heart of the tourist district and only a short walk from the shoreline, this residential collection introduces three-, four-, and five-bedroom detached homes framed by mature greenery and a calm, established setting. Each residence carries a distinct architectural presence, defined by the interplay of natural materials such as wood and stone, bringing together traditional Mediterranean character with a modern sense of space and comfort. Interiors are bright and well-proportioned, with selected imported marble used for the internal staircase, quality ceramic finishes, and layouts designed for easy everyday living.

The outdoor environment continues the same balance of a...
